

WILD TALK

Prompts to Start Conversations about Conservation

Having conversations with kids about animals and wild spaces can lead to a lifetime of interest in, and care for, the natural world. Use these questions to get them talking.

If you could be any animal, what would you be and why?	Cheetah wants a new look. What pattern would you choose for his fur?	If you could have any animal as a pet, what would you choose?	What is your favorite animal you have seen in real life?
Do you have any wild animals in your yard?	Do you think animals in your neighborhood have enough space to live in? Why or why not?	If you had a chance to pet a snake, would you? How about a tiger?	Would you rather be able to fly like an eagle, swim like a dolphin or run like a cheetah?
Think of your 2 favorite animals. Now imagine that they're one animal combined. What would you name it? (Cheetah+eagle = Cheegle)	Why do you think some animals become endangered?	What can we do to help protect animals' homes?	If you could talk to animals, what would you say to them?
What's your favorite thing to do outside?	What do you think a dolphin feels like? An owl? A porcupine?	What are some things you can do around your house and neighborhood to help animals?	A group of wolves is called a "pack." What's a group of fish called? Geese? Cows? Bees?
